

For the Second Year in a Row, Abilene to Host 2025 Mid-America League Playoffs at Walt Driggers Field

Abilene, Texas – March 24, 2025 – The road to the Mid-America League championship will run through Abilene, Texas, as the Flying Bison, the reigning Regular Season Champions, have been selected to host the 2025 league playoffs at Walt Driggers Field for the second year in the row. This exciting postseason action will feature the league's top four teams battling for the coveted championship title.

The playoffs will kick off with two semi-final matchups:

- August 5: The 1st seed will take on the 4th seed
- August 6: The 2nd seed will face the 3rd seed

The winners of these games will advance to the championship round, a best-of-three series scheduled for August 7, 8, and 9 (if necessary) to determine the 2025 Mid-America League Champion.

"We are immensely proud to be able to bring the Mid-America League playoffs back to Abilene for the second year," says John Stark, President and General Manager of the Flying Bison. "It is a testament to the support of all the Flying Faithful that continues to make Walt Driggers the most ELITE place to play in all of Collegiate Summer League baseball."

More details about the game times, ticket information, and special events surrounding the playoffs will be announced later in the season. Fans can expect an electrifying atmosphere as Abilene showcases high-stakes baseball at Walt Driggers Field.
